Zennor Box

20th April 2022 – 3rd August 2022

Zennor Box's work presents a refreshing take on the world around us as she captures those odd moments of ridiculousness or humour that pepper our lives and often go unnoticed.

Zennor gets beyond our human stereotypes and biases by emulating our actions through painting animals; as she says:

“painting humans inevitably makes you assess the gender, colour and age of the person depicted, whereas I’m interested in the story or plight of a character... there’s an honesty these creatures unwittingly reveal to us, unaware they’re sharing their intimate story with all its trials and tribulations... it’s a world that’s strange, sometimes magical and totally echoes our own.”

Zennor has been compared to the granddaddy of Surrealism, Salvador Dali so dive in and enjoy the world seen through her eyes!
